

HILARIO DURAN & YAILEN DURAN

FAMILY MATTERS

This is a rare opportunity to hear a living legend of Latin jazz, Hilario Durán, performing in a duet with his daughter, Yailén Durán.

Always striving to expand his creative boundaries, Hilario Durán presents his original compositions in an intimate setting, reflecting a wide range of influences – from Cuban classics and Latin jazz to American standards. Yailén Durán will also perform her own original works, inspired by both traditional and contemporary Cuban melodies and rhythms.

Hilario's formal musical training, combined with his deep understanding of traditional Cuban music and his passion for jazz, has enabled him to play a key role in the integration of Afro-Cuban music and jazz.

Yailén Durán - singer, pianist, composer, and choral director - is a graduate of the renowned Amadeo Roldán Conservatory of Music in Havana, Cuba. A Juno Award winner and Grammy nominee, she has also earned three platinum records for her work with Nelly Furtado.

This is a unique opportunity to experience these two exceptional artists performing together, in a program that draws on Cuban traditions while embracing strong classical influences.
